TIDE 1985

MARSHFIELD HIGH SCHOOL

MARSHFIELD MA.

ON THE COVER

Tide, the traditional name of the Marshfield High School yearbook, is the only requirement, and hence restriction, involved in the creation of a yearbook theme, and as it turned out, Tide is perfect for the theme, in fact, created the theme. Not, however, that the yearbook is filled with beach scenes. Rather, the theme is that of a magazine format. Looking at slides of many yearbook covers with the hope of stimulating ideas, we in the art class saw a cover made up of all of a school's previous covers. This Year in Time, that's what the format resembled. Time-how similar to Tide! Why not base the yearbook on Time magazine? Thus, you have a special edition of Tide magazine, "The Graduate." June 1st, circled on the back cover, marks the day when you will be a graduate. We will be graduates. Together we will say good-bye to one part of life, realizing, however, that the memories of the past four years have climaxed in a new hello. Here are those memories.

1985 TIDE

As we look back on our high school years, how could we ever forget Mr. Bartlett. He could make us laugh at the worst jokes even at the worst of times. Mr. Bartlett put a lot of time and effort into the class of '85 and he will always be remembered in our fondest memories. We thank you and will miss you

DEDICATION

Mr. Zicko is a special and unique person. He is dedicated to both his subject and students. His humor and friendship aided the students through some seemingly mundane days at Marshfield High School. The class of '85 would like to thank Mr. Zicko for all his help and encouragement throughout the year He shall never be forgotten.

HOMECOMING 1984

It was a bright and sunny day, commendable weather for such an occasion. As halftime rolled around, the band members, majorettes, and cheerleaders demonstrated the results of their long practices in front of a cheering crowd. The anticipation built up until the highlight of the day arose. Three representative girls were chosen for the Homecoming Court. Second runner up was Kelly Brennan; first runner up was Hope Concannon, and Queen ... drumroll please ... Michelle Gregory. After a disappointing game loss, 0-27, to Plymouth Carver, crowds flocked home to rest up before the dance. This time the king and "princes" were honored. Tim Madden was our second runner up, Jeff Webber, our first runner up and King - Paul Caraher. Flowers and gifts were given to these recipients as well as semifinalists Jamie Emanuel, Jenny Emerson, Ann Margaret Young, Kyle Rand, Craig Fossella, and Steve Ledogar.

THE WINTER FAIRE

"Wishing on a Star" marked the first ever semi-formal dinner-dance held at Marshfield High School on Saturday February 9, 1985.

The Cafe was a magical winter wonderland with a pink and purple carousel aglow with a sparkling array of light.

Memories will long linger on for those Marshfield High School couples that danced the night away.

AIR GUITAR DANCE

On December 8, the class of 86 held the annual Air Guitar Dance. Eight fantastic guests showed up to make the night a hit.

The night started off with Cindy Lauper proving to the crowd that girls do just wanna have fun. Then came Twisted Sister, and of course they wanted to rock. Queen came out next, and they wanted to rock you, but that wouldn't work because Maria Vidal wanted to get the crowd into body-rock. The Pointer Sisters came out with a jump, and after that Chaka-chun just had to feel for you. To almost make the night complete, the great Hall and Oates showed up with a Big Bam Boom. After all these stars had their chance to get the crowd going, John Travolta and his greased crew brought the crowd alive. It was an easy win for Greased Lightning as the best performance of the night.

In September of 1984, the Marshfield High School Drama Club began production of the thriller "Bad Seed" under the direction of its new advisor, Mr. Peter Kates. Mr. Kates was aided by Kimm Upton as assistant director and Jenna Hewitt as stage manager.

Leading the cast were, Kirsten Peterson and Christine Billings, and strong supporting roles were added by Ellen M. Sheehan, Tim Anderson, Jason Altieri, Greg Palmer, Dennis Carchia, Jen McCarthy, Leon Whittemore, Jennifer Matulewicz and Greg Hewitt.

After the performance of "Bad Seed" in early December, the Drama Club began work on two productions-a student directed one-act play called "Overtones", and a musical play titled "Once Upon A Mattress." Following our presentation in March, the Drama Club will present a new three-act play.

The 1984-85 Drama Club officers are: Kimm Upton, President; Ellen M. Sheehan, Vice-President; Michelle Huhnke, Secretary; Beazie Chase & Jeanna Hewitt, Treasurers; and Kirsten Peterson, Promotional Manager.

CONTEMPORARY MOCK WEDDING

The junior and senior Contemporary Living Classes staged their wedding and reception on January 11, 1985 in the Upper Library. Michele Williams and Frank Burton represented the seniors, and Michelle Gronberg and Scott Almeder, the juniors. Mr. Deftos, acting as clergy, directed the couples through their vows with a reading by Joy Tranfaglia and solo by Lisa Creed. John Lundborn and Greg VonFreymann, the best men, toasted each couples happiness- at least through June. Catering was provided by Mrs. Greenes' food service class. The wedding cake was cut and served to 120 parents, faculty, and students. The event ended with the toss of the bouquets & garters which were caught by Karen Smith, Kris Fiffy, Andy Spellman, and Dean Crumlish. Good Luck!

Other members of the wedding party were Sherry Bocash, Regina Kenney, Kim Galgana, Kris Fiffy, Tina Niland, Michelle Curtis, Lisa Morel, Tammy Swimm, Sandy DeCoste, Kelly Smith, Andy Spellman, Rob Reess, David Walsh, and Daren Ayre

... WE THANK YOU, MR. HUPPRICH

The senior class would like to thank Mr. Edward Hupprich for all the time and effort that he has put into the class of 1985. He has been with us for four fun-filled years and he has offered us excellent counseling through all our class projects, beginning with the freshman fashion show and continuing right up through graduation. There were times that the class officers and class members were tired and unwilling to cooperate, but that never dampened Mr. Hupprich's spirit. He stood by us in the worst of times and congratulated us in the best of times. Not only was Mr. Hupprich an advisor helping out, but also a friend when needed. We have shared many laughs and triumphs with him and he will be long-remembered with all of our high school memories.

Congratulations To The Class Of 1985

A collage of various items. At the top left, a portion of a 1984-1985 calendar is visible, showing months from September to June. A jar of Vaseline is placed over the calendar. Two packets of Bayer Aspirin are also visible, one partially overlapping the calendar and the other the Vaseline jar. To the right, a school information flyer is posted, containing sections for 'AFTERNOON CONFERENCE', 'KINDERGARTEN INFORMATION', 'EARLY DISMISSAL', and 'SCHOOL LUNCH INFORMATION'. The flyer lists dates for conferences, dismissal times, and lunch details. At the bottom, there are some handwritten notes and a 'WORKING PAPER' section.
